Ophthalmology – Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Ophthalmologists (RANZCO)

The Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Ophthalmologists (RANZCO) is the medical college responsible for the training and professional development of ophthalmologists in Australia and New Zealand.

Read more about the RANZCO here

Entry requirements

- A Medical degree with full registration to practice medicine in either Australia or New Zealand at the time of applying
- Citizenship or permanent resident status in Australia or New Zealand (an applicant's citizenship or residency status must be confirmed by 1 April of the year/s they apply to enter the VTP)
- Completed a minimum of two years full time post graduate pre-vocational experience (including the intern year) when you enter the VTP, which must include a minimum of 18 months of broad experience in medical, clinical, and surgical settings other than ophthalmology.

How to Apply

- To be successfully selected onto the RANZCO Vocational Training Program (VTP), an applicant must be short-listed by RANZCO and selected by a Training Network Selection Committee, including being extended an offer of employment. As such, applicants are advised to consider both the RANZCO weightings and those of their preferred Network(s) in making their application
- RANZCO uses a multi-method approach to selecting applicants to enter the VTP.

Total Training Time

The RANZCO Vocational Training Program is a five-year training program upon completion of which graduates are eligible to be admitted as Fellows of the College (FRANZCO).

- Basic Training (2 years)
- Advanced Training (2 years)
- Final Year Training
