

Please retain these Conditions of Award as this document forms part of your agreement with the University.

1 PURPOSE

The purpose of the scholarship is to enable a suitably qualified graduate to carry out, under the supervision of a member of staff appointed by the College, a program of study leading to a Higher Degree by Research (HDR).

2 ELIGIBILITY

- 2.1 To be eligible for the award of a Flinders University Research Scholarship, a student must:
- a. be an Australian citizen or a New Zealand citizen or an Australian permanent resident at the closing date for applications; or be an international student who has completed an honours degree or equivalent qualification at an Australian University no more than three years prior to the application closing date; and
  - b. be enrolled, or be seeking to enrol, as a full-time student in a research higher degree at Flinders University; and
  - c. have completed a Bachelors degree with Second Class (Division A) Honours or above, or an equivalent level of academic attainment.
- 2.2 A Flinders University Research Scholarship will not be awarded to a student who:
- is in receipt of an award which directly duplicates the purpose of the Flinders University Research Scholarship;
  - is on paid study leave;
  - holds a fractional academic appointment;
  - holds a Research Doctorate or equivalent, or holds a Research Masters or equivalent and is seeking a FURS to undertake a Research Masters degree.

3 APPLICATION

Applications are submitted via the student information system available via the Flinders University website: <https://www.flinders.edu.au/study/apply/apply-research-degree/how-to-apply>

4 SELECTION

Selection of award holders will be undertaken by the Scholarships Committee based on academic merit and research potential.

Applications will be ranked according to the University HDR Ranking Guidelines

The University will give priority to students undertaking a higher degree by research for the first time.

5 TENURE.

- 5.1 A Flinders University Research Scholarship is tenable for:
- three years full-time in the case of Research Doctorate students; or

- two years full-time in the case of Research Masters students.
- 5.2 An extension to the duration of a FURS for a Research Doctorate student of up to six months may be approved by the Scholarships Committee provided the student is making satisfactory progress and the grounds for the extension relate to the study and are beyond the control of the student. Research Masters students are not eligible for an extension.
- 5.3 A part-time Flinders University Research Scholarship may be approved for a limited period of time by the Scholarships Committee only if the student has exceptional circumstances. Exceptional circumstances relate to significant caring commitments or a medical condition which limits the student's capacity to undertake full-time study.
- 5.4 A part-time Flinders University Research Scholarship may be approved by the Scholarships Committee if the student is undertaking Commercialisation Training Scheme training concurrently with their research higher degree.
- 5.5 Part-time award holders are expected to progress at half the rate of full-time award holders. Part-time award holders may revert to full-time study at any time with the approval of the Scholarships Committee.
- 5.6 The tenure of the award will be adjusted for
- Research Masters students who upgrade their candidature to a Research Doctorate during the tenure of the award;
  - Research Doctorate students who downgrade their candidature to a Research Masters during the tenure of the award;
  - Award holders who have completed periods of study towards the degree for which the scholarship was awarded before accepting their Flinders University Research Scholarship;
  - Award holders who undertake periods of study towards their degree whilst on intermission from their Flinders University Research Scholarship.

6 STIPEND

In 2022, the stipend will be paid at the following rates:

	Rates for 2021
• Full-time	$28,854 pa tax-free
• Part-time	$14,427 pa taxable

7 TUITION FEES

Commencing Australian or New Zealand citizens and Australian permanent residents and eligible continuing students will receive a Research Training Program Fee Offset. This provides an exemption from tuition fees for the normal duration of a HDR, up to a maximum period of four years full-time equivalent study for a Research Doctorate, and up to two years full-time equivalent study for a Research Masters. Refer to the RTP Scholarship Administrative Rules page for more details.

International students who receive a tuition fee waiver must undertake the majority of their study in Australia. International students not in receipt of a fee-waiver scholarship will be required to pay international student fees for the normal duration of a research higher degree (defined above).

8 ALLOWANCES

8.1 Relocation Allowance

A FURS recipient who relocates to Adelaide from overseas or interstate in order to take up an award may be eligible to apply for reimbursement of relocation and travel expenses. This allowance will be paid at the following rates:

Relocation Allowance	Rates for 2022
Relocation Expenses
• Adult	$505
• Child	$255
Travel Expenses	Value of economy or student concession airfares
Total Maximum Allowance	$1,485

8.2 Thesis Allowance

FURS recipients may be eligible to apply for a thesis allowance of up to $500 to assist with thesis production costs. Students claiming a thesis allowance must include original receipts and must be lodged within six months of the date of College approval that all requirements for the degree have been completed, and within two years of the termination date of the scholarship.

9 REGISTRATION & ESTABLISHMENT

- 9.1 Award holders will be asked to nominate a commencement date, which is not later than 31 March in the year in which the scholarship was awarded.
- 9.2 In exceptional circumstances, award holders may apply to the Scholarships Committee for permission to commence their award after 31 March but must commence no later than 30 June.
- 9.3 Following acceptance of a FURS, an award holder must arrange an appointment with the Office of Graduate Research HDR Admissions Team to be enrolled into the HDR and thesis topic and must remain enrolled for the duration of the FURS. Refer to Your HDR: Getting Started for more details.

10 EMPLOYMENT

- 10.1 Award holders may undertake a strictly limited amount of part-time paid employment, provided it does not interfere with their study program. Students are normally only permitted to work up to 8 hours in any one week. A part-time student is subject to the same restrictions on employment as a full-time student. Employment will be monitored by a student's supervisor. Award holders must apply to the Scholarships Committee for approval to undertake more than 8 hours work a week.
- 10.2 The assessment of hours for award holders who undertake part-time teaching will be defined in accordance with the awards and rates of pay for part-time teaching at Flinders University as follows:
  - an initial tutorial involves a total time of three hours, normally requiring one hour each of preparation, contact and marking time;
  - a repeat tutorial is designated as two hours.

11 LEAVE

- 11.1 Award holders are entitled to 20 working days paid recreation leave for each year of FURS stipend, in addition to all public holidays. Recreation leave may be accrued over the tenure of the award but will be forfeited when the award is terminated. Recreational leave does not extend the period of support for the FURS.
- 11.2 Award holders are entitled to up to 10 working days of paid sick leave per year. Sick leave may be accrued over the tenure of the award but will be forfeited when the award is terminated. Sick leave less than 10 consecutive working days does not extend the support of the FURS.

- 11.3 Award holders are entitled to receive additional paid sick leave of up to a total of 60 working days' during the duration of the FURS stipend for periods of illness where the student has insufficient sick leave entitlements available under clause 11.2, provided that a medical certificate has been provided by the student to the University. Approved sick leave longer than 10 consecutive working day and up to 60 working days with a certificate will extend the period of support of the FURS.
- 11.4 Sick leave entitlements (including additional sick leave) for award holders may also be used to cover leave for students with family caring responsibilities, subject to the usual practice of the University.
- 11.5 Award holders who have completed 12 months of their FURS stipend are entitled to a maximum of 60 working days paid maternity leave during the duration of the FURS stipend, which is in addition to the normal tenure of the award. This will be subject to the usual practice of the University paid leave may also be approved if the student has adopted a child.
- 11.6 Award holders who are partners of women giving birth while receiving a FURS stipend and who have completed 12 months of their FURS stipend may be entitled to 1 week paid parenting leave at the time of the birth or adoption, subject to the usual practice of the University. Approval will extend the period of support of the FURS stipend by 1 week.

12 INTERMISSION

- 12.1 Award holders who wish to intermit or suspend their studies must complete the request on in INSPIRE and submit it at least four weeks before the proposed change (except in the case of illness). The Scholarships Committee may approve a period or periods totalling up to 12 months. In exceptional circumstances (circumstances beyond the student's control), the Scholarships Committee may approve periods of intermission up to 24 months in total.
- 12.2 The Scholarships Committee will not approve intermission of scholarships in the first six months of scholarship tenure except in exceptional circumstances.
- 12.3 Award holders must notify Student Finance and Scholarships at least three weeks prior to resuming study following a period of intermission.
- 12.4 Award holders who suspend their studies without the approval of the Scholarships Committee will be required to repay any award payments to which they were not entitled.

13 OTHER AWARDS

Award holders may not normally hold other awards concurrent with the Flinders University Research Scholarship. Award holders must immediately advise Student Finance and Scholarships if they are offered a stipend top-up or other stipend supplement. The Scholarships Committee may give approval for an award holder to accept a stipend top-up or other stipend supplement, which will not exceed 75% of the FURS.

14 TERMINATION OF AWARD

The award will be terminated:

- 14.1 if the award holder ceases to meet the eligibility criteria specified in 2 above, other than during a period of intermission; or
- 14.2 two weeks after the award holder's thesis is submitted or when the award expires, whichever is earlier; or

- 14.3 if at any time, under the provisions of Clauses 4.8 of the HDR Policy and Clauses 4 and 6 of the HDR Progression Procedures, the College terminates the scholarship recipient's candidature; or
- 14.4 if the award holder ceases to be a full-time student and approval has not been obtained from the Scholarships Committee to hold the award on a part-time basis; or
- 14.5 if the award holder does not resume study at the conclusion of a period of intermission and approval has not been obtained from the Scholarships Committee to extend that period of intermission; or
- 14.6 if the course of study is not being carried out with competence and diligence or in accordance with the offer of the scholarship; or
- 14.7 if the award holder has committed serious misconduct, including, but not limited to the provision of false or misleading information in relation to the Flinders University Research Scholarship.

If an award is terminated, it cannot be re-activated unless the termination occurred in error.

15 TRANSFER OF AWARD

- 15.1 An award won in competition at Flinders University cannot be taken up at another institution and award holders are expected to complete their candidature at Flinders University.

16 HDR MILESTONES

- 16.1 Every HDR student is required to complete a HDR Milestone report in each year of candidature. Refer to Clauses 4.8 of the HDR Policy and Clause 4 of the HDR Progression Procedures. An award may be terminated if an award holder fails at any time to make satisfactory progress as documented by the HDR Milestone process.
- 16.2 The Scholarships Committee may, at its discretion, require an award holder to submit additional progress reports.
