

Flinders University International Travel Scholarship

Flinders University has established the Flinders University International Travel scholarship to assist students to enhance their Flinders University studies by providing an international perspective.

Subject to the availability of funding, one or more grants valued at either $500 (short term) or $1,000 (for semester) will be awarded in each year.

ELIGIBILITY: Applicants must:

- Be enrolled onshore undergraduate or postgraduate coursework students at Flinders University at the time of application and throughout their scholarship; and
- have successfully completed at least 36 units of the undergraduate course at the commencement of overseas study; or
- have successfully completed at least 18 units of the postgraduate course at the commencement of overseas study; and
- be accepted into a semester length international WIL project or practicum, a semester exchange, or an approved short term mobility program; and
- have their overseas study count as credit towards their course of study at Flinders University; and
- not be in receipt of any other Flinders University administered award which provides travel assistance.

TENURE: The scholarship will be awarded for study undertaken overseas for a period of no longer than six months. Applicants will be eligible for a scholarship to contribute towards the cost of economy class international fares and domestic travel with the nominated program, and additional living expenses while in-country including accommodation and meals associated.

The scholarship will be withdrawn if the subsidy holder ceases to meet the eligibility criteria specified above.

FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS: The scholarships will be funded by the Flinders University International Centre. The number of scholarships to be awarded will be determined by the Vice President and Pro-Vice Chancellor (International) (or nominee).

SELECTION: The Flinders University International Travel scholarship will be awarded on the basis of academic merit and the extent to which an applicant's proposed program of study will enhance their Flinders University studies by providing an international perspective. Selection will be made in consultation with Student Finance and the International Centre.

OTHER AWARDS: Scholarship recipients who obtain other travel assistance awards concurrent with the Flinders University International Travel scholarship must immediately inform Student Finance Services. Student Finance reserves the right to reduce the value of the award if the recipient is offered other scholarships.

PAYMENT: Recipients will be paid in a single instalment into their nominated bank account.

PUBLICITY: The name and academic qualifications of successful applicants may be published by the University once the scholarship has been accepted.

