

Purpose

The purpose of this scholarship is to provide financial assistance to students studying Flinders University courses delivered in the Northern Territory.

Benefits

Each scholarship will have a value of $5,000 per annum paid in equal instalments after the census date of each semester. Two scholarships will be available per year for the duration of the funding.

Source

The scholarship has been established through a generous initial donation from Professor Jonathon Craig and contributions from the community.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- Be an Australian citizen; and
- Be enrolled in one of the following courses:
  - Bachelor of Paramedicine
  - Graduate Certificate, Graduate Diploma or Master of Remote Health Practice
  - Doctor of Medicine

Of the two scholarships available per year, one will be reserved for students who meet the following additional criteria:

- Are of Australian Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent and be accepted as an Australia Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander by the community in which he or she lives or has lived; and
- identify as an Australian Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander.

Part-time recipients will be paid pro-rata.

Tenure

The tenure is 1 year. The scholarship will be paid in two equal instalments, after the census date of each semester.

Leave

Leave will be permitted for the second semester of this scholarship, for a maximum of one semester only.

Selection

The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of demonstrated contribution to the community.

Northern Territory residents (students who have lived in the Northern Territory for a minimum of 5 years) will be prioritised. Following this, students who have a permanent home address in regional or rural Australia will be prioritised.

Selection of the candidate(s) will be made by a Rural and Remote Health Northern Territory panel and Academic and Student Services.

Applications

Applications should be submitted online through the Student System by the specified closing date.

Advertising

The scholarship will be advertised on the University website and other appropriate media as determined by Flinders University.
