3. Piping

- a. Where piping for the hood is specified, the colour is based on the College which is responsible for the award, as set out in the table below.
- b. The piping colours are as defined by the PANTONE® colour standard. The exact colour standard match is published on the Graduation website.

Piping Colour	College
Blue	Business, Government and Law
Orange	Education, Psychology and Social Work
Yellow	Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences
Green	Medicine and Public Health
Red	Nursing and Health Sciences
Purple	Science and Engineering

4. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Australians

A person who identifies as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander Australian is entitled to wear a stole, worn over the gown and under the hood of the academic dress in accordance with the Council-approved designs held by Graduations Services.
