PUBLIC TRANSPORT

- Adelaide Metro is Adelaide's public transport which covers the entire metropolitan region. It includes buses, trains and trams that run from the city to the inner and outer suburbs.
- Adelaide Metro fares are the same on buses, trains and trams and remain the same no matter the distance travelled. You can pay with a rechargeable metroCARD, Adelaide Metro tap and pay ticket by using your credit/debit card or smart device, or the Adelaide Metro Buy & Go app on trams and buses with transfers to trains departing from the Adelaide Railway Station.
- If you're a full-time student using public transport regularly, you can buy a metroCARD which will allow you to ride on Adelaide's buses, trains and trams at a discount. Full-time students with a valid student ID are eligible for a concession metroCARD:

- Information about all Adelaide Metro fares and tickets is available on the Adelaide Metro website.
- metroCARDS can be purchased and recharged at the Post office on the Bedford Park campus.
- To find other retailers or facilities where to buy or recharge a metroCARD click here.
- For information about how to catch a bus, train or tram click here.

Free Public transport services

Adelaide has free city connector buses Routes 99A and 99C loop around the CBD and are available Monday to Friday. Routes 98A and 98C follow the same loop around the CBD and extend to North Adelaide. They are available every day.

- Tram routes around the CBD are free. The free zone is the area between the South Terrace stop, Adelaide Entertainment Centre, Festival Plaza and the Botanic Gardens.
- Additional information about free and special services can be found here.

Public transport apps
