Flinders University is unable to arrange professional experience placements (PEPs) for students in this course; therefore, applicants need to accept responsibility for sourcing their own PEPs and confirm they have Unit Manager support to meet the requirements of Work Integrated Learning (WIL) topics listed below.

So that the University can be confident you will meet the requirements of the WIL topics to complete the course, you are required to confirm you:

- work in and/or have access to a tertiary or quaternary institution with an Intensive Care Unit/High Dependency Unit; and
- have Nurse Unit Manager support to undertake PEPs for the two 192-hour WIL topics in said Intensive Care Unit/High Dependency Unit.

Section 2: Applicant Declaration (all must be ticked)
<input type="checkbox"/>	I declare that I work in/have access to a tertiary or quaternary institution with an Intensive Care Unit/High Dependency Unit, and
<input type="checkbox"/>	I declare that I will be able to arrange the required number of PEP hours to complete the two WIL topics in said Intensive Care Unit/High Dependency Unit.
